Keith Boudreault has been a conversation buddy with Global Partners, Caritas School for the past two years. Keith is also responsible for helping the teacher with the international student class. He has a pleasant and calm disposition, and is capable of making the girls feel comfortable speaking English in the classroom.

He is very interesting to speak with and quite knowledgeable in many fields. Although forty hours per week are required to obtain a credit at the high school level, Keith does not count his time. On numerous occasions, he has gone above and beyond the call of duty. Keith is punctual, helpful, does not complain about the tasks assigned to him, a team player, never turns down a challenge, and, above all, he is polite and respectful.

I would not hesitate to have him join my team again. He would be a welcome asset to any organization.

Sincerely,

Louise Hansen
